Auburn Expert Here

An expert from the Kansas City branch of the Auburn Automobile Company is here today and tomorrow with the Weaver Auto Co., making any adjustments that may be necessary to Auburn cars in use in this territory. It is a custom of the Auburn people to send an expert to all territory where they are represented once a year to see that all their cars give perfect service and to make good any defects in workmanship or material.

Oiling Bills Due

The oil tax is now due and payable at the Benson Bank. Pay now and avoid the interest of 8% which begins August 20.

M. P. Benson,
City Clerk.

Methodist Episcopal Church

E. M. Hoff, Pastor.

There will be no services at the church on August 28 on account of the Meadville chautauqua.

The regular service will be held next Sunday at the usual hours, all but the Epworth League which will have no meetings during the chautauqua.

All services will be resumed on September 4, and we trust with full attendance.

Everybody welcome.

The Baptist Church

Ralph A. Craig, Pastor.

Sunday school, 9:45; sermons 11:00 and 8:00 o'clock by the pastor. Wednesday prayer meeting at 8:00. B. Y. P. U. 7:30.

Good attendance at all services last Sunday especially at Sunday school and that in spite of the fact that so many of the officers and teachers were absent a thing that very seldom happens in our school. Surely the officers and teachers are to be commended for their faithful attendance, and others for their readiness to serve in their absence.

Come to church. You are welcome.

Take your poultry, cream and eggs to the farmers' store, the Laclede Cooperative Co.

ON LOCAL SUBJECTS

Local Items and Interesting Bits of News of All Sorts

Marshal White was notified yesterday morning by the chief of police of Chillicothe to keep a watch out four girls who had escaped from the industrial home Wednesday night. They were headed this way over the Burlington, the message said.

Geo. Wade was on the stock market at Kansas City Tuesday and bought three cars of feeding cattle. They arrived Wednesday and were taken to his farm north of town. Mr. Wade is one of this county's most successful feeders and turns off several cars each year.

The Standard Bearers of the Methodist church are to camp at the Meadville chautauqua, to be charapored by Miss Edith Hamilton. The young ladies who expect to go are Misses Hazel Wilson, Bernice Chinn, Lois Gould, Frances Talbott, Fern Thurman, Allene Byrd, Fredia Savage and Ethel Gar-side.

B. Hennon, who has conducted the restaurant in the Dick building the past three months, sold out Friday to P. J. Ennes of Brookfield. The Hennon family left Monday for their former home at Green City. Mr. and Mrs. Ennes are experienced restaurant people and have greatly improved the looks of things about the place.

The abundance of rain through July and August without the usual dry spell during these months has caused a wonderful growth of all kinds of vegetation. The corn crop is practically made, fall pasturage is plentiful and the lawns never looked more beautiful. They are as fresh and green today as in the early spring and all nature is at its best.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Cushing left Sunday night on an extended trip that takes them to the Pacific coast. They go the northern route, visiting in Nebraska, Idaho, Oregon and other states and at several places in California, returning the southern route, stopping at several places to visit relatives and friends. They have a delightful trip planned and expect to be gone two months.

Mrs. Lillian Coleman, who has been an efficient operator at the local telephone exchange the past year, resigned Friday and left town Saturday on train 3. The next day the St. Joseph papers announced that marriage license had been issued there to George Barr of Brookfield and Mrs. Lillian Coleman. Later a card was received from her at Denver where they are supposed to be on a wedding trip. Mr. Barr is an employee of the Burlington at Brookfield.

Farm Loans

Six per cent farm loans, unlimited money, quick service. See or write us, office Frances building, Brookfield. Burwell & Porter.

Cross Atlantic in Dirigible

A former Laclede boy, Lieutenant Ralph Pennoyer, is scheduled to leave England August 25 on a flight to the United States in a navy dirigible, ZR2, according to a feature picture in last Sunday's Kansas City Post. The hangar where this great ship will be housed after arriving in America is the largest in the world being 1000 feet long, 310 feet wide and 200 feet high. The dirigible on its trans-Atlantic flight will be in charge of Commander L. H. Maxfield and Lieutenant Pennoyer. The Pennoyer family lived on on a farm just west of town, and while attending the Laclede high school Ralph passed a successful examination, was appointed to Annapolis by Congressman Rucker and has been in the navy twelve years. Lieutenant Pennoyer is a nephew of O. G. Tooker of route three.

Laclede Bakery

The Laclede Bakery is proving to be a much needed industry here. No bread is now being shipped in, the several hundred loaves consumed here daily being supplied by the local bakery. All places in town handling bread are now selling Laclede bread, Mr. VanHouse having demonstrated that just as good bread and pastry can be made in Laclede as in any bakery in the country. Pies, cakes, cookies and all bakery products are being supplied fresh every day and at very moderate prices. The people of Laclede and surrounding territory should give the Laclede Bakery their loyal support.

Auto Repairing

O. Z. Serfass, an experienced workman on all cars, is now permanently located at the Groes garage and invites those needing work done to give him a trial. All work is guaranteed at very moderate prices.

Birthday Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gould gave an elaborate dinner at their home Monday to a number of relatives in honor of the eighty-first birthday of Mrs. Gould's mother, Mrs. J. L. Ong. Those present were Mrs. G. E. Bruns, Mrs. Gussie Cribaro and daughter, Nellie Elizabeth, of Santa Ana, Cal., Mrs. Lee Love and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Love of Brookfield, Mr. and Mrs. Ed L. Love of Hannibal, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Andros of Brookfield, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Taylor of Sumner and Miss Ella Ong.

Fall Millinery

We are home again from the markets with our new fall line and are now open for the fall and winter business. Our hats are up to the minute in style and at prices to suit the most economic buyers. We invite you to come and see us before buying. Mrs. Linn.
